MEDIA RELEASE

5 September 2018

CONSULTATION OPEN FOR AUSTRALIAN PORK LIMITED PERFORMANCE REVIEW

Australian Pork Limited (APL) is seeking feedback from stakeholders and interested parties, as it begins an independent review of its performance.

A performance review is required every three years prior to completing and renewing APL's Funding Agreement with the Commonwealth Government. It provides an opportunity to ensure the continuous improvement of the company to meet industry needs.

Forest Hill Consulting will complete the independent review. The consultancy team will be contacting a selection of stakeholders between August and October 2018, to discuss the performance of APL.

The performance review will assess APL's efficiency and effectiveness, including:

- accountability and transparency with government, levy payers and industry stakeholders
- responsiveness to the government's Research and Development (R&D) priorities
- ability to meet FA obligations and Ministerial requested directions
- performance against strategic and annual business plans, and
- activities that provide wider public good benefits.

APL encourages all stakeholders to have their say during the review period. In particular, APL urges all producer members and non-members to participate.

If you would like to make a submission to the review, or if you would like to be contacted about any matter relating to this review, please send an email to submissions@aplreview.org

Submissions must be received by 12 October to be considered in the review.
