2. Interpretation

2.1 Reference to:

- (1) a person includes a body corporate; and
- (2) a party includes the party's executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns.

2.2 Including and similar expressions are not words of limitation.

2.3 Headings and any table of contents or index are for convenience only and do not form part of this Agreement or affect its interpretation.

2.4 A provision of this Agreement must not be construed to the disadvantage of a party merely because that party was responsible for the preparation or the inclusion of the provision in the Agreement.

3. Grant of licence

3.1 In consideration of the promises contained within this Agreement, APL hereby grants to the Licensee a non-exclusive licence to use the Trade Mark for the Term in the Territory solely on and in connection with the Nominated Products, in the Licensee's Industry Capacity in accordance with the terms and conditions contained within this Agreement.

4. Term

4.1 This Agreement will commence on the date of execution by the parties and continue for the Term subject to any earlier termination in accordance with this Agreement.

5. Licensee obligations and rights

5.1 The Licensee must:

- (1) use the Trade Mark:
  - (a) only on and in relation to Nominated Products;
  - (b) in accordance with any Policies published by APL, and the following branding and advertising requirements:
    - (i) the Trade Mark must appear on the packaging/product label of every individual pack of Nominated Products sold in a visually prominent position, so as to ensure that consumers may readily identify the Trade Mark on each pack as it is displayed in-store;
    - (ii) a picture of a pack (or packs) of Nominated Products with the Trade Mark clearly displayed must be shown in any advertisements for the Nominated Products; and
    - (iii) the Trade Mark must appear only in the form (including the proportions, fonts, colour and overall design) specified in the Policies.
- (2) submit any packaging, advertising and promotional material bearing the Trade Mark to APL for approval prior to it being used by the Licensee. APL will advise the Licensee whether it grants approval within 4 business days of receipt of such material.
- (3) use its best endeavours to observe and protect the reputation of APL and the Trade Mark;
- (4) not use the Trade Mark in any manner which may be misleading or deceptive or adversely affect the interests of APL in the Trade Mark;
- (5) not make, or cause to be made, or assist directly or indirectly in making, any act or omission which may, or may be likely to infringe, invalidate, challenge, threaten or otherwise interfere with any part of the right, title or interest of APL in the Trade Mark;
- (6) not use or register or attempt to register any business name, domain name, corporate name or trade mark which is, or incorporates the Trade Mark or any name, word, mark, design, emblem, visual representation or slogan substantially identical with or deceptively similar to the Trade Mark; and
- (7) not use the Trade Mark as part of the logo or identity of the Licensee.

- 5.2 The Licensee must ensure that all Nominated Products:
- (1) contain pork exclusively sourced from pigs raised and slaughtered in Australia; and
  - (2) meet the requirements of the Australian Standard AS4696:2007 for the hygienic production and transportation of meat and meat products for human consumption, as updated from time to time.
- 5.3 The Licensee's Quality Assurance Program must ensure accurate and correct labelling of Nominated Products.
- 5.4 The Licensee must, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, comply with all Regulations applicable to the exercise of the Licensee's rights and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, and/or to food identification, traceability, advertising and labelling in connection with the Nominated Products, including:
- (1) Labelling and food identification under the Food Standards Code; and
  - (2) Country of Origin food labelling requirements
- 5.5 To the extent permitted by law, any rights that the Licensee might have under common law, equity or statute (including under section 26 of the Trade Marks Act 1995 (Cth)) in relation to the Trade Mark and this Agreement are specifically excluded and the Licensee's rights are limited to those expressly contained under this Agreement.
- 5.6 The Licensee does not and will not acquire title to, goodwill in, or any other rights to the Trade Mark other than the right to use the Trade Mark in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Any reputation or goodwill arising in the Trade Mark accrues solely and exclusively to the benefit of APL.
- 5.7 The Licensee must not at any time during the Term, be a holder of, or entitled under, any permit, licence or other authorisation to import pork in any form (including raw or cured) into Australia for further processing in Australia not including already cured meats such as prosciutto etc.
- 6. Quality Assurance Program
- 6.1 The Licensee must at its cost, upon request by APL, submit documents that detail the Licensee's Quality Assurance Program.
- 7. Policies
- 7.1 The Licensee must comply with the Policies as notified by APL from time to time.
- 8. Indemnity and product liability
- 8.1 The Licensee indemnifies and will keep indemnified APL, its servants, agents, officers and employees, from and against any and all claims, actions, proceedings, demands, costs or expenses arising directly or indirectly from:
- (1) the Licensee's unlawful, wilful or negligent acts or omissions;
  - (2) the Licensee's breach of this Agreement;
  - (3) any damage, loss, injury or death to any person as a result of or in connection with a Nominated Product; or
  - (4) use of the Trade Mark other than in accordance with this Agreement.
- 8.2 The Licensee must not (either expressly or impliedly) represent to any person that APL warrants or guarantees the quality or properties of the Nominated Products or any other product or service. APL acknowledges that the use of the Trade Mark on Nominated Products in accordance with this Agreement does not, by itself, breach this clause.
- 8.3 APL does not by the grant of the licence to use the Trade Mark under this Agreement, accept any liability to the Licensee or any other party for any damage, loss or injury caused as a result of the use of any Nominated Product.
- 8.4 Subject to clause 8.5 and clause 8.6, and, to the extent permitted by law:
- (1) APL excludes all:
    - (a) terms, conditions, warranties, undertakings or representations of any kind in relation to the Trade Mark or this Agreement;
    - (b) liability (other than liability which may not be lawfully excluded including liability for any statutory consumer guarantees, or any implied condition or warranty the exclusion of which from this Agreement would contravene any statute or cause any part of this Agreement to be void ("Non-Excludable Guarantees" or direct loss arising from APL's negligence or wilful misconduct) for loss or damage (including indirect or consequential loss and loss of profit, anticipated profit, expectation, revenue, data, use, damage to goodwill or loss due to delay) however caused (including breach of contract, negligence, tort and/or under statute) that may be suffered or incurred or that may arise from or in connection with this Agreement or the Trade Mark; and
  - (2) where a condition or warranty may be lawfully excluded and is not a Non-Excludable Guarantee, liability is limited (at APL's discretion) to:
    - (a) if the breach relates to goods, the replacement of the goods or the supply of equivalent goods; or payment of the costs of replacing the goods or of acquiring equivalent goods; or
    - (b) if the breach relates to services, the supplying of the services again or the payment of the cost of having the services supplied again.
- 8.5 APL warrants that to the best of its knowledge, information and belief as at the date of this Agreement the Trade Mark does not infringe any third party's intellectual property.
- 8.6 Where APL is found to be in breach of clause 8.5 APL will indemnify the Licensee against any direct costs arising out of the Licensee's use of the Trade Mark in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 8.7 This clause 8 survives termination or expiry of this Agreement.
- 9. Termination and expiry
- 9.1 APL may terminate this Agreement in whole or in part by giving to the Licensee written notice of termination, effective on the date specified in the notice, upon the occurrence of any one or more of the following:
- (1) an Insolvency Event;
  - (2) APL ceases to offer or to manage the use of the Trade Mark, in whole or in part;
  - (3) if the Licensee at any time breaches the warranty in clause 5.7;
  - (4) if the Licensee at any time breaches any provision of this Agreement, including any provision of the Policies, and does not rectify the breach within 7 business days of being notified of the breach;
  - (5) if the Licensee repeatedly breaches any provision of this Agreement, including any provision of the Policies;
  - (6) where, in the reasonable opinion of APL, there is a danger to the health or welfare of the public in respect of a Nominated Product; or
  - (7) where, in the reasonable opinion of APL, the reputation of APL, or the Trade Mark is at risk.
- 9.2 Upon termination or expiry of this Agreement, the Licensee will:
- (1) immediately cease to have any rights in relation to the Trade Mark and must immediately cease to use or

- reproduce the Trade Mark or to hold itself out as being entitled to use or reproduce the Trade Mark;
- (2) in the manner and within the timeframe APL requires, dispose of all packaging and promotional material etc. that features the Trade Mark; and
  - (3) if required by APL, recall the Nominated Products for the purpose of removing the Trade Mark from the Nominated Products.
- 9.3 Any termination by APL of this Agreement, in whole or in part, will be without prejudice to any other rights and remedies of APL under this Agreement or at law.
- 10. Dispute Resolution
- 10.1 If a dispute arises under this Agreement, a party to the dispute must give the other party written notice specifying the dispute and requiring its resolution under this clause 10 ("Notice of Dispute").
- 10.2 The principal executive officers of each party must confer, within 3 business days after the Notice of Dispute is given, to try to resolve the dispute.
- 10.3 If the dispute is not resolved within seven (7) business days after the Notice of Dispute is given to the other party or parties ("First Period"), the dispute will be submitted to determination by an expert ("Hearing"). The Hearing must be conducted in the Australian Capital Territory. The provisions of the "Rules for the Expert Determination of Commercial Disputes" ("Rules") as published by the Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia (to be found on its website www.iama.org.au) apply. In the case of inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Rules, the Rules will prevail.
- 10.4 If the parties have not agreed upon the expert and the expert's remuneration within 7 business days after the First Period:
- (1) the expert is the person appointed by the President of the Law Society of the Australian Capital Territory ("President") or the President's nominee acting on the request of any party to the dispute; and
  - (2) the remuneration of the expert is the amount or rate determined by the President.
- 10.5 After considering such evidence as the parties may submit, including any evidence requested by the expert, and after each party has had an opportunity of being heard, the expert will decide the matter.
- 10.6 The parties must pay the expert's remuneration in equal shares. Each party must pay its own costs of the Hearing.
- 10.7 Nothing in this clause 10 prevents any party from obtaining any injunctive, declaratory or other interlocutory relief from a court that may be urgently required.
- 11. General
- 11.1 No partnership - Nothing in this agreement is intended to create a partnership, agency or joint venture as between the Licensee and APL.
- 11.2 No assignment - The Licensee may not assign or otherwise deal with the whole or any part of this Agreement, or sublicense or otherwise deal with the rights granted to it by APL in relation to the Trade Mark.
- 11.3 Severability - If any clause or subclause in this Agreement is found unenforceable, illegal or void then it is severed and the rest of this Agreement remains in force.
- 11.4 Entire understanding - This Agreement and the Policies form the entire Agreement and understanding between the parties on all issues connected with the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersede any prior agreement or understanding on all issues connected with that subject matter.
- 11.5 Variation - An amendment or variation to this Agreement is not effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties.
- 11.6 Waiver - A party's failure or delay to exercise a power or right does not operate as a waiver of that power or right. A waiver is not effective unless it is in writing.
- 11.7 Costs and outlays - Each party must pay its own costs and outlays connected with the negotiation, preparation and execution of this Agreement.
- 11.8 Notices - A notice or other communication connected with this Agreement ("Notice") has no legal effect unless it is in writing and must be delivered to the address contained in the Parties' contact details specified in the Term Sheet.
- 11.9 Governing law and jurisdiction - The law of the Australian Capital Territory ("ACT") governs this Agreement and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the ACT and of the Federal Court of Australia
