

2024-25 Pork Leadership Course Application Form

Become a leader of the pork industry

APL is excited to announce applications for the 2024-25 Pork Leadership Course are now open, and we're encouraging our future leaders to take part in this development opportunity.

The Pork Leadership Course is a 12 month, APL-funded program which supports its participants to develop as leaders in their respective businesses and wider pork industry.

Workshop overview

Workshop 1: 6 days November or February (dependent on cohort availability)	Leadership camp designed to help the participants bond with their cohort, as well as develop resilience, teamwork, and other leadership qualities.
Workshop 2: 3 days March	Leadership workshop which will build the participants' presentation and media skills.
Workshop 3: 14 days June	Site visits to farms and other parts of the pork supply chain, and/or to other relevant businesses/industries Internationally.

How to apply

1. Complete the questions in the application form.
2. Create a 60 second video on a topic you are passionate about (e.g. hobby, sport, travel). Tell us about your topic of choice, why it means so much to you, and how it has had a positive impact on you.
3. Submit completed application form and video to rowena.davis@australianpork.com.au, upon receipt of written application we will provide details on how to submit the video application component.

Please ensure that you have support/endorsement from your business or employer when applying. Expectation for cost share of international travel will be communicated prior to workshop 3. Application forms must include the signature of both the applicant and an authorised representative of the applicant's place of employment

Applicants will only be considered for the course when written and video components are both received by 5pm Friday 30 August 2024.

Completed applications
